SEEKING SERENITY? Then peek into the captivating oasis of Serenity at Coconut Bay, Saint Lucia. This luxurious resort completely reinvented the concept of an all-inclusive vacation experience, and is exactly the all-suite, adults-only resort you've been looking for. The beautiful and peaceful resort provides a phenomenal personalized vacation experience for every guest. Attentive butlers ensure you are having the exceptional vacation you signed up for, and the resort's amenities will keep you entertained throughout your stay.

Each of Serenity's 36 private and spacious suites is unique in design, mirroring the resort's personalized luxury experience. Whether you're drifting into dreamland in your custom mahogany bed, luxuriating in an oversized candlelit tub, or letting the refreshing rain shower soothe you, one thing is for certain—you will love it.

A True Spa-cation

Enjoy some peace and quiet as you step out to your very own private patio, where you can swing in a hammock for two, take a dip in Serenity's signature plunge pool, or cool down under an outdoor shower. And, since everyone needs a little pampering every once in a while, why not enjoy a couples' or individual massage in the comfort of your own suite? The treatments are personalized and designed specifically for your wants and needs, leaving you feeling revived, restored, and reconnected to the world.

SERENITY AT COCONUT BAY provides endless opportunities to venture out and experience the island's beauty. Whether you're hiking around the island, exploring the waters on your stand-up paddle board, or snorkeling to meet the local sea creatures, your mind will be filled with breathtaking memories of your serene trip to Saint Lucia.
